Caring about those around us is not just a moral obligation, but also a way to enhance our own well-being. When we extend kindness and support to others, it not only makes them feel valued and loved, but it also brings us a sense of fulfillment and happiness. (Anelis 13)

Caring about those around us, for me, means being genuinely invested in their well-being, happiness and success. It involves being attentive to their needs, offering support in times of difficulty and celebrating their joys (Gratziela 8G)

Caring about those around us means do not close your eyes, Help and support whos has not a home and lives in the middle of war (Giulia 2 C)

Often those who must we care are closer than we thought, help, love and support them bringing peace and solidarity (Silvia 3 A) we care about those around us, I think we can live more peacefully because sharing people's troubles, sadness and joy is the most important rule of living together, If we care about those around us, we will be very happy and peaceful in terms of society. Everyone has feelings, we must try to understand them, we must empathize, we try to understand their situation by putting ourselves in their shoes, so we can understand what they are feeling. Since

When we think of caring about those around us, many things can come to our mind. For example, caring about what they think, seeing their needs, and more. In such cases, what matters is the other people's thoughts. This is empathy.

Empathy is perhaps the most beautiful feeling in life. (Ayris 8 gr

I was glad to have an opportunity to help those in need." (Rūta, 13 years old.)

It was my first time at the animal shelter. At first I felt somehow uncomfortable, but later I even made friends with one of the puppies". (Simona, 13 years old)

Every year at ACNUR LOCO FESTIVAL, we sell our handmade Christmas decorations and with the money raised we support the refugees

You feel more important when you performance support the UNCHR - (Sonia)
